

In the park there have been more ice sculptures. Nearly now buildings! It was great to see them. And it was the right decision to go to Harbin. And there there was another really big slight. That was also great to slight it. At the top some Chinese guys have been afraid. Anna and I wasn't afraid of this slight and went straight down. That was fun! And we saw some sculptures from the olympic games. They also had one of volleyball and of course I let made Anna makes pictures of me.

picture 1: I'm playing ice volleyball ;-)

Afterwards we finished our tour at 21:30. It was quiet late and some bus didn't drive anymore. On friendly person helped us. When the bus arrived there haven a lot of people inside. It was no pleasure to go by bus. When will the bus driver say: „No people any more“! I never so a bus which is so filled up of people. We were glad when we get out of the bus. Then we took our final bus home to our hostel. We bought a beer and enjoyed the rest of this great day!

picture 2: A few over the nearly the hole place with Ann infront!